THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premium paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Jamshedpur Technical Institute.

APPLICATIONS are invited from students desirous of studying metallurgy at the Jamshedpur Technical Institute. Five students will be selected from this province, who are natives of or are domiciled in Bengal. Of these, two will be non-Hindus. The next session will commence on November 1st.

A combined theoretical and practical three years' course is given at the Institute and the Works in the metallurgy of iron and steel. During the training each student will be allowed a monthly stipend of Rs. 60. On the completion of the course, successful students may be required to enter into an agreement to serve the Tata Iron and Steel Company for five years, in which case they will be given a position in the Works on a salary of not less than Rs. 7 per day.

The minimum qualification required is the Intermediate Science or Engineering Examination of a recognised University or the Cambridge Higher School Certificate Examination, and the subjects passed must include Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. Students who have passed the Final Examination of the Mechanical, Electrical or the Mining Classes of the Bengal Engineering College are also eligible for admission. Candidates must be under twenty-two years of age on November 1st, 1929; the only proof of age that will be accepted is that registered by the University authorities. Candidates must be of sound physique and have perfect eyesight. Those selected will be required to pass a medical examination.

No student who is not a native of or is domiciled in Bengal need apply for selection from this province.

Application should be submitted in the first instance to the Director, Technical Institute, Jamshedpur, direct so as to reach him not later than the 31st July 1929. Candidates should state in their applications their age, academic qualifications, with subjects passed and division, the province they come from, weight in lbs., height, abdomen and chest measurements. Preference will be given to those who possess the following average figures for physique, and have passed the I. Sc. at the age of 18 either in the 1st or 2nd division:—

Weight	135 lbs.
Height	5 feet 6 inches.
Chest expanded	36 inches.
Chest expansion	2 inches at least.
Abdomen	27 inches.

Original certificates must not be sent unless asked for. Any applicant making a false statement will be disqualified.

Application forms and other papers will be despatched from Jamshedpur, only to those candidates who appear to have some prospects of admission.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premium paid, should the nominee pre-decease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Notice under section 10A of Act IX (B.C.) of 1879.

WHEREAS under sections 7 and 35 of the Court of Wards Act, IX (B.C.) of 1879, as amended up to date, the Court of Wards has assumed charge of the property of Srimati Suniy Bala Debi, zamindar of Bamandanga estate, Bara Taraf, in the district of Rangpur.

Jamshedpur Technical Institute.

APPLICATIONS are invited from students desirous of studying metallurgy at the Jamshedpur Technical Institute. Five students will be selected from this province, who are natives of or are domiciled in Bengal. Of these, two will be non-Hindus. The next session will commence on November 1st.

A combined theoretical and practical three years' course is given at the Institute and the Works in the metallurgy of iron and steel. During the training each student will be allowed a monthly stipend of Rs. 60. On the completion of the course, successful students may be required to enter into an agreement to serve the Tata Iron and Steel Company for five years, in which case they will be given a position in the Works on a salary of not less than Rs. 7 per day.

The minimum qualification required is the Intermediate Science or Engineering Examination of a recognised University or the Cambridge Higher School Certificate Examination, and the subjects passed must include Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. Students who have passed the Final Examination of the Mechanical, Electrical or the Mining Classes of the Bengal Engineering College are also eligible for admission. Candidate must be under twenty-two years of age on November 1st, 1929; the only proof of age that will be accepted is that registered by the University authorities. Candidates must be of sound physique and have perfect eye-sight. Those selected will be required to pass a medical examination.

No student who is not a native of or is domiciled in Bengal need apply for selection from this province.

Application should be submitted in the first instance to the Director, Technical Institute, Jamshedpur, direct so as to reach him not later than the 31st July 1929. Candidates should state in their applications their age, academic qualifications, with subjects passed and division, the provinces they come from, weight in lbs. height, abdomen and chest measurements. Preference will be given to those who possess the following average figures for physique, and have passed the I. Sc. at the age of 18 either in the 1st or 2nd division:—

Weight	135 lbs.
Height	5 feet 6 inches.
Chest expanded	35 inches.
Chest expansion	2 inches at least.
Abdomen	27 inches

Original certificates must not be sent unless asked for. Any applicant making a false statement will be disqualified.

Application forms and other papers will be despatched from Jamshedpur, only to those candidates who appear to have some prospects of admission.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premium paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Unconvenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarrying or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees pre-decease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Unconvenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.
